Three Jazz Legends Take on the Great American Songbook!
Friday, September 19 | 8pm | Verizon Hall
"Very simply, this is jazz at its finest." - Los Angeles Times

The 2008/2009 season kicks off in high style next Friday, September 19 when pianist Keith Jarrett, drummer Jack DeJohnette and bassist Gary Peacock return to the Kimmel Center for their highly anticipated 25th Anniversary Tour. Be there as these pivotal proponents of the jazz standard movement lend their spellbinding improvisational skills to favorite works from the 1930s, 1940s and 1950s, shedding new light on the Great American Songbook.
