A Fairy Tale for adults, or for the child that every grown-up once was. Under the patronage of the Embassy of France, The Ambassador Theater is delighted to present the beloved story of The Little Prince. It is a story that reminds us of all we leave behind to grow up and invites us to see the world again with the fresh eyes of youth. A journey of simple beauty, Saint-Exupery's tale has a different meaning for each of us. Young and Old alike will enjoy this visually alluring masterpiece. Join us for an adventure that spans from the Sahara to Outer Space and Beyond. A place where it's never too late to rediscover your dreams.

"It is only with the heart that one can see rightly. The essential is invisible to the eyes. " Antoine de Saint-Exupéry

WHERE: Mead Theater Lab at Flashpoint, 916 G Street NW, Washington DC

October 16, 2010 – November 7, 2010

TICKETS: $25 General Admission; On line: www.aticc.org/tickets or at the door. Students and Senior Citizens $15. Group Tickets $15

Fridays, 7:30 PM, Saturdays, 3:30 PM and 7:30 PM, Sundays, 12:30 PM and 3:30 PM

Ambassador Theater's mission is to build international cultural awareness, provide a high standard of international repertoire based on close relations with the diplomatic and cultural representatives of different countries in the United States, and provide international interactive educational programs for the youth of the District of Columbia, the D.C. Metro area, and around the United States.

For more information, visit www.aticc.org.

Ambassador Theater, Washington

www.spojrk.com