

Male 43 years old, honest, sincere, calm, without any addictions is seeking a cheap room.It is hard for me to specify a location, because I am also looking for a job. Work with the opportunity of residing would be the best solution. It oddly turned out that what I had lined up, I lost. I have permanent residency , and a permit to work. For any help I'll be very thankful. Available is only my email, I will immediately call or write back.
