We have openings for local guides.

Local Guide Wanted
About the Job
Become a Local Guide -
This job is just crafted for you if love to meet new people working outdoors at your preferred flexible work schedule. Your hobby for amateur theaters, interest in history and passion for sports are going to get you a job where you can enjoy each day with something different.
Shiroube has earned the reputation as the world's largest marketplace for guides and connects the visitors with the local residents. The service of providing guides for travelers now extends to more than 3,000 cities across the world.
It's time for you to use your local knowledge and expertise for a very rewarding mutual experience where you can let our visitors enjoy your customized walks through the city uncovering hidden and secret places as you have all the required knowledge because you live there.
As a local resident you can better judge what is excellent, pleasant or pleasurable when it comes to the delicacies of restaurants in your town. Good food and taste can bring fame and glory to your city, and thus it is certainly meant for sharing. You can become a good food and wine guide too.
Feeling a bit hesitant as you never have been a guide before? No need to worry! You are only required to show something unique and interesting regarding your city or offer or teach our visitors something special, and if you are good with interacting with the people this job is just for you!
We don't require any experience but university education and performance background may be advantageous.

Please visit http://shiroube.com/ for further information and apply to the opening.
