Divine READINGS:

Luke 1:67-79

67 Zechariah his father, filled with the Holy Spirit, prophesied, saying:
68 “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has come to his people and set them free. 69 He has raised up for us a mighty Savior, born of the house of his servant David, 70 Through his prophets he promised of old 71 that he would save us from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us. 72 He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant. 73 This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham: 74 to set us free from the hand of enemies, free to worship him without fear, 75 holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life. 76 You, my child, shall be called prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, 77 to give his people knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins. 78 In the tender compassion of our God the dawn from on high shall break upon us, 79 to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

think: We need to see that earthly riches are nothing compared to the graces and riches of eternal life.
