Hi! If you are open-minded, kind-hearted and intelligent man with good sense of humour then we will find a lot in common.
I am a cheerful woman, I have gorgeous eyes, and my smile will not leave you indifferent.
My friends think that I am a very beautiful girl. My name is Veronika

I believe in love and my heart is full of heat and tenderness, which I want to share with my soulmate. I like listening to different kinds of music. I am waiting for true love and I can be a "hopeless" romantic. I want to find a real man who will love me and I am ready to give him my love in return.
Regards, Veronika.
