THE CHURCH, AS A WHOLE, IS PITIFULLY UNPREPARED FOR THIS SPIRITUAL BATTLE

http://catholicblog.webs.com/

My daughter, I will continue to counsel you and teach you all that you need as you move forward in this, the greatest battle of all time. The church as a whole is pitifully unprepared to face even the smallest of attacks. How will she stand against all the powers of darkness as it covers this earth?

I tell you, so very few understand that this battle cannot and will not be fought with conventional means. This battle is spiritual, and the only way to be victorious is to be an overcomer, to abide in Me. We must be in communion with each other. We must harmonically merge as One heart, One spirit, and My word must be written on your hearts. Then and only then will you utter a sound and My voice will speak forth from your mouth as the enemy falls to defeat.

If you do not know Me intimately, how will you expect Me to answer you in your desperate time of need? Without repentance and humility, without obedience and trust, without any commitment to Me as your God and your Creator, to whom will you turn to? Who will be your refuge in the terrible storm that is here?

Have I not promised you shelter and protection? Have I not prepared a place for you? I would not have said it if it was not so. Where is your faith? On what foundation do you stand? Wherein lies your security?

I have seen and I know the heart of every man. Nothing escapes the Great Almighty!

REPENT! REPENT! REPENT!
