http://catholicblog.webs.com/
The Admonitions of St. Francis - [TAU-Daily] Admonition 27
On the virtue of fleeing vice 44
Where there is charity and wisdom, there (is) neither fear nor ignorance. · Where there is patience and humility, there (is) neither wrath nor disturbance. · Where there is poverty with gladness, there (is) neither cupidity nor avarice. · Where there is quiet and meditation, there (is) neither solicitousness nor wandering about. · Where there is fear of the Lord to guard the entrance hall (cf. Lk 11:21), there the enemy can have no place to enter. · Where there is mercy and discretion, there (is) neither superfluity nor hardness.

FOOTNOTES
44 St. Francis expounds this theme again in his "Salutation of the Virtues" [SalVirt].
27. Virtue and Vice
Explain each couplet in a way which is more intelligible to you.
How does the spirit of this admonition differ from the "Peace Prayer of St. Francis"?
(Please read http://www.franciscan-archive.org/franciscana/peace.html)

Anna, OFS, The whole world!
Tel.: 732-325-7779

www.spojnik.com