"I am your Jesus, born Incarnate."
"I tell you solemnly, every injustice bears the consequence of separation from Me - from My Provision and My Mercy in this life or the next. Those who suffer injustice will be shown My tender Mercy and receive their reward on earth or in Heaven."

"Those given more responsibility in the world are required to treat such responsibility wisely and with respect - making all decisions with truthful transparency. Remember, nothing lies hidden from Me. I am the Just Judge. Each soul is given the grace to live in righteousness and Truth but he must choose it."

Then the righteous man will stand with great confidence in the presence of those who have afflicted him, and those who make light of his labors. When they see him, they will be shaken with dreadful fear, and they will be amazed at his unexpected salvation. They will speak to one another in repentance, and in anguish of spirit they will groan, and say, "This is the man whom we once held in derision and made a byword of reproach-we fools! We thought that his life was madness and that his end was without honor. Why has he been numbered among the sons of God? And why is his lot among the saints? So it was we who strayed from the way of Truth, and the light of righteousness did not shine on us, and the sun did not rise upon us. We took our fill of the paths of lawlessness and destruction, and we journeyed through trackless deserts, but the way of the Lord we have not known. What has our arrogance profited us? And what good has our boasted wealth brought us?
