English as a second language at American Language Center
American LC offers English as a second/foreign language programs which have been designed to prepare students to continue their education in a college or university and to encourage them to experience and understand the American culture. Our school offers a quality learning experience for students including personalized attention. Accepting applications from permanent residents and other types of U.S. visas

American Language Center, Philadelphia, PA
Tel.: 215-791-7700

www.spojnik.com